PHIL NEAL

ONCE again, as I am in the privileged position of accepting the Barclays Manager of the Month award on behalf of Bolton Wanderers, I feel I must thank all the lads for the efforts they have put in on the club's behalf and everyone here at Burnden Park both behind the scenes and out there in the crowd for all the support I have received.

But February is gone

now and we have entered March, the hectic month as I call it. We've already started well at Tranmere—what a good result that was for us last Friday night! But a glance down the fixture list shows that we have just seen the back of our last 'free' midweek for a while. From here on it's excitement all the way. That said, it is important in our position to keep our feet on the ground and not look too far down the list. One game at a time will do.

What is worth considering at this stage is our disciplinary record. I don't think we have any players even approaching suspension problems—and that's full credit to them, especially after having three players sent off in the early weeks of the season. I think after those early problems we quickly became attuned to the way referees were operating under the new guidelines and, as I have done throughout my career, been prepared to accept whatever decisions are given—whether for us or against us. Hopefully you, the fans, will do the same!

Our friends from Fulham today have not had the best of seasons so far but I know they will be determined to win this game—as determined in fact as any of the top teams. So we cannot afford to treat them lightly. But with Grimsby and Southend playing each other we'll be doing our best to steal a march on our rivals.

My last thoughts are with our boys still out there in the Gulf. We've had bags of correspondence from the servicemen so I feel it's worth saying a sincere "Well done lads!" to all of them on the club's behalf. Hopefully they'll soon be back home and back here at Burnden, where we'll be doing our utmost to give them something else worth celebrating come May.

An update of today's opposition

FULHAM

This afternoon we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Fulham. Now in their fifth season in the Third Division since their relegation in 1986, the Cottagers once again find themselves perilously placed towards the foot of the table, having only just survived last term.

Last Saturday, a 1-1 home draw against Reading left Fulham in 20th place, with 28 points from 30 games. Mick Gooding gave the visitors an early lead but Phil Stant equalised after 38 minutes. Bolton-born Stant, a recent £60,000 purchase from Notts County, has begun his Fulham career in style, scoring three goals in his first four games, including the winner on his debut against Preston. Prior to joining the Cottagers he had spent a month on loan to Huddersfield Town.

Stant's arrival should help boost Fulham's meagre goal tally, which stands currently at only 28 in the league. The defence has been reasonably solid but it is the lack of scoring power, combined with a poor away record, which has contributed to a disappointing season so far.

Fulham share with Southport United the dubious honour of being the only League clubs without an away win this term. On their travels, Fulham have drawn six times, at Crewe, Shrewsbury, Swansea, Southend, Mansfield and Tranmere and lost on nine occasions, six times by a single goal margin, with only 9 goals on their travels. You have to go back a year, to 10 March, 1990, for Fulham's last away League win, a 1-0 success at Huddersfield, since when Fulham have drawn nine and lost twelve out of 21 away league games.

At Craven Cottage, Fulham have won six times, most impressively against Chester (4-1) with other successes against Rotherham, Bury, Exeter, Crewe and Preston. The latter game attracted a crowd of only 2,750 and the average for League games this season is 3,740, with a highest of 5,113 for the visit of Southend.

Over the last year or so the make-up of the Fulham side has changed considerably with numerous new signings and the departure of some players. Towards the end of last season Fulham signed Bournemouth defender Mark Newson for £125,000 and Martin Pike for £65,000 from Sheffield United, after he had completed a loan spell with the Wanderers. Newcomers this term include defenders Stacey North (£130,000 from West Brom) and Simon Morgan (£102,000 from Leicester), midfielder Mark Kelly (£31,000 from Cardiff) and forwards Gary Brazil (£110,000 from Newcastle) and Phil Stant. Meanwhile Gary Elkins joined Wimbledon and last season's leading scorer, Clive Walker, was transferred to Brighton. Ronnie Mauge moved to Bury while Gary Barnett joined Huddersfield.

With Ray Lewington, manager for four years, taking up a coaching role at the club, Alan Dicks took over the reins at Craven Cottage. 56 year-old and London-born, he was a centre-half for Chelsea and Southend before moving to Coventry where he was coach and then assistant manager and then into a managerial role at Bristol City in 1967. In 13 years at Ashton Gate Dicks steered the club into the First Division in 1976, for the first time since 1910, and kept them there for four seasons. Since leaving the West Country he has coached in Qatar, Greece and the U.S.

Dicks has used 26 players in League games so far this season with Pike the only ever-present. In cup competitions, Fulham went out of the Rumbelows Cup in the first round, losing 1-4 on aggregate to Fourth Division Peterborough. In the FA Cup, Fulham lost 1-2 at Cambridge in a second round replay and went out of the Leyland DAF Cup, losing 1-2 in a first round tie at Mansfield.

Goalkeeper Jim Stannard is now in his second spell at Fulham, broken by a two season stint at Southend. After making his League bow in the 1980-81 season, it took the London born keeper a while to become established but since the 1985-86 season the 28 year-old has missed only five League games. Recently Fulham signed Brentford goalkeeper Tony Parks on loan from Brentford until the end of the season. The 28 year-old former Spurs player had played only one League game for the Bees this season since the arrival of Graham Binstead from Sheffield United.

Jeff Eckhardt joined Fulham three seasons ago from Sheffield United. The 25 year-old completed 200 League appearances earlier this term and is a versatile player at home in a defensive or midfield role. 25 year-old Richard Langley joined Fulham from Corinthian Casuals four years ago while 27 year-old Gavin Nebbelling was an £80,000 signing from Crystal Palace in the summer of 1989. The South African-born defender is another Fulham player to have completed 200 League appearances this season. Martin Pike made five League appearances for Wanderers on loan from Sheffield United last season, scoring in his final game, ironically against Fulham. The 26 year-old South Shields born left-back joined the Cottagers after that game and has since been a regular member of the side. Pike, who began his career with West Brom as an apprentice, made his League debut with Peterborough in 1983 and has now made over 300 League appearances.

Long-serving Peter Scott shared a benefit in 1989-90 with John Marshall to mark ten years service. A ball-playing midfielder, the 27 year-old London born stalwart has made 226 League appearances for the Cottagers since his League debut in October 1981. Marshall, a 26 year-old and Surrey-born, has been a most valuable and versatile player for Fulham and, since making his first-team debut in September 1983, has made over 250 League appearances for the club. Justin Skinner came up through the apprentice ranks at Craven Cottage, making his League debut four years ago. Last season the 22 year-old completed 100 League appearances and scored against the Wanderers at Craven Cottage for the second season running. Glen Thomas missed much of last season through injury but has been a regular this term, completing 100 League appearances. A left-sided defender, the 23 year-old is another product of the club's apprentice ranks.

Stacey North joined Fulham from West Brom last October. Formerly with Luton Town, his home-town club, the 26 year-old defender has made around 150 League appearances. Another new recruit was defender Simon Morgan, a 24 year-old Birmingham born former England Under-21 international who had made over 160 League appearances for Leicester. Gary Brazil was signed from Newcastle after 18 months on Tyneside. A former Crystal Palace apprentice, the 28 year-old made his League bow with Sheffield United, moving on to Preston in 1985 where he scored 58 goals in 166 League games before joining Newcastle in February 1989.

Gordon Davies, capped 18 times by Wales, has long been one of the League's most feared strikers and is Fulham's all-time record goalscorer, with 178 goals in around 450 games in League and cup. The 35 year-old joined Fulham from home-town Merthyr in 1978, scoring 113 goals in 247 League games before a £90,000 transfer to Chelsea in November 1984. A year later he moved on to Manchester City before returning to Craven Cottage in October 1986. Phil Stant made his name with his goal-scoring deeds at Hereford United, scoring 28 League goals in 1988-89. The 28 year-old Bolton-born striker who had played briefly for Reading in the early eighties, joined Hereford after a spell in the army. He was transferred to Notts County for £175,000 in July 1989 and joined Fulham a month ago. Martin Ferny is another former club trainee to graduate through to the first team, the teenager making his League debut at Shrewsbury last September. 17 year-old striker Steven Milton joined Fulham from non-league Whyteleafe in October, 1989 and made a big impression in his first League season. 20 year-old Kelly Haag was a summer recruit from Brentford and made his Fulham debut at Shrewsbury in September.

BARCLAYS BANK MANAGERS AWARDS FOR FEBRUARY IN DIVISIONS TWO, THREE & FOUR

RON ATKINSON of Sheffield Wednesday, who return to Wembley for a final for the first time in 25 years after beating First Division Chelsea 5-1 on aggregate in the League Cup semi-finals, is the Second Division winner among the Divisional Awards named by The Football League. This is Ron's 13th managerial prize in 16 years at four different clubs: Cambridge United (4), West Bromwich Albion (2), Manchester United (5) and Sheffield Wednesday (2). PHIL NEAL (Bolton Wanderers) collects his second award of the season—his fourth in two years—having collected 14 points from 6 Barclays League games during the month to move into second place in the Division Three table and establishing a new club record of going 21 League matches undefeated.

BRIAN LITTLE of Darlington wins the Fourth Division accolade in their first season back in the Barclays League—topping the table following an unbeaten month, winning four out of five Barclays League matches: the former Aston Villa forward's first managerial prize.

Each of these managers will receive an inscribed plate and a jeroabom of champagne at a home match this month.

GEORGE GRAHAM BANKS — HIS FIRST ACCOLADE OF 1991 AS GUNNERS GO FOR THE DOUBLE

George Graham of Arsenal—the new favourites for the 1991 Barclays League and FA Cup Double—has been named the Barclays Bank Manager of the Month for February by a panel of 30 leading football journalists and commentators. George, whose 11th managerial award this is in 8 years at two clubs—four at Millwall and seven at Arsenal, including the Barclays Bank Manager of the Year accolade in 1989—will receive a jeroabom of champagne, an inscribed plate and a cheque for £250. The presentation will take place at Highbury on Sunday, 17 March prior to the Gunners' Barclays League fixture v Leeds United.

BARRY'S A BELTER

The popular left back became the first Wanderers defender to score in a league match this season when he converted his thirty yard 'Cowdrill Cracker' in the fine 1-0 away win at Reading. Last season's 'Player of the Year' award winner scored his first goal since finding the target against Tranmere on the 6th January, 1990 ironically when he was playing in midfield due to the loan period of Martin Pike. Barry's goal at Elm Park was only his seventh in his professional career, six while playing for the Wanderers and just the one for his only other club West Brom.

BARRY COWDRILL

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Since our last home game against promotion rivals Grimsby Town manager PHIL NEAL has celebrated his 40th birthday, whilst GARY HENSHAW was 26 on February 18th and DAVE FELGATE 31 last Monday have both been blowing hard the candles on their respective birthday cakes.

KEVIN ROSE

Kevin has spent the last month on loan at Fourth Division neighbours Rochdale who recently appointed ex Wanderer Dave Sutton as their new manager. Kevin in fact had been in great form for our reserve side before joining the Spotland outfit who were without the services of regular keeper Keith Welch (suspended) and Gareth Gray (injured) both of course former Wanderers players.

LOOK BACK IN TIME

Reports and events from years past

9th MARCH

1889: Bolton completed their second victory in four days over Notts County with a 7-3 success at Pikes Lane. Kenny Davenport scored a hat trick, Archie Barbour hit the target twice and the other goals came from Jimmy Turner and James Brogan.

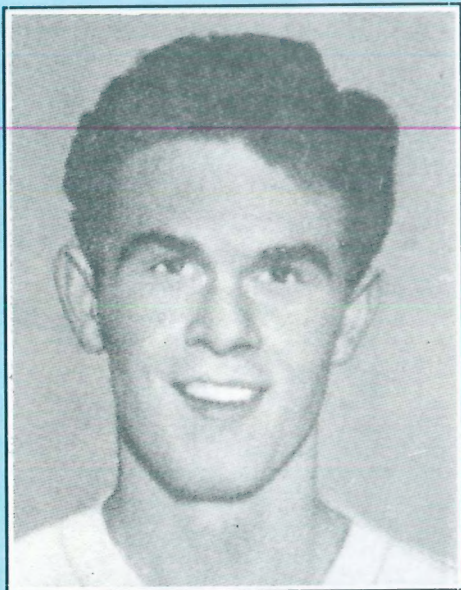

1901: The Wanderers made their first League visit to Hyde Road, home of Manchester City, Jimmy McKie putting Bolton in front after 7 minutes. City equalised before half time and the result ended in a 1-1 draw. Four days later Bolton again visited City in a Manchester Senior Cup tie but went down 2-0.

1907: A goal from Walter White won the points against Bury at Burnden.

1912: A first minute goal by Joe Smith earned Bolton Victory at Sunderland and kept them in 5th place in Division One.

1927: Billy Roberts, a centre forward signed from Buckley United a month previous, made his League debut and scored twice in a 3-1 home win over Burnley. A crowd of 13,331 saw David Jack score the other Bolton goal.

1932: The Wanderers who were still looking for their first away point of the year, switched half back Billy Wright into the forward line for the visit to Portsmouth. Unfortunately the play failed as Pompey ran out 3-2 winners although Wright scored with Billy Cook also hitting the target.

FREDDIE HILL

A hat trick against Sheffield United on this day in 1963.

1946: Stoke City visited Burnden in the second leg of a 6th round FA Cup tie with the Wanderers holding a 2-0 advantage from the first leg. The game ended scoreless but 33 people lost their lives when the barriers gave way at the embankment end of the ground.

1955: Home form continued to move the Wanderers away from the threat of relegation as they recorded their fourth consecutive win at Burnden. Nat Lofthouse and Harry Webster scored in a 2-1 defeat of Preston.

1963: Bolton took part in their first home game for three months due to the weather creating havoc with the fixture list. A hat trick from Freddie Hill gave the Wanderers' 3-2 win against Sheffield United thus gaining revenge for an FA Cup defeat at Bramhall Lane three days earlier.

1974: A 1-1 home draw against West Brom extended Bolton's undefeated League sequence to 11 games. Tony Brown gave Albion a first half advantage but John Byrom struck the equaliser.

TRANMERE 1
BOLTON 1

Another 10,000 plus gate witnessed a fascinating duel between the two promotion seeking sides. With things all to play for after a goalless first half it was Tranmere who opened the scoring minutes into the second half. Excellent saves from Dave Felgate kept the Wanderers in the game until a final twenty minute onslaught from Bolton saw Rovers' keeper Eric Nixon produce outstanding saves from Philliskirk, Brown and Darby but he could do nothing about Mark Patterson's first goal for the club in the 81st minute.

IN CONVERSATION

A look at some of the great soccer stars

Frank had barely reached his peak when forced to retire with a broken back in 1987 and he's only 33 now. Playing all his career north of the border he once attracted a record £200,000 fee at the time involving a move from Clydebank to St. Mirren. His continuous goalscoring prompted Alex Ferguson to splash £100,000 on his services to join Aberdeen in the mid 80's.

But Frank has played at Bolton in 1981. "It was in the Anglo Scottish Cup for St. Mirren here revealed, "when Sam Allardyce, Willie Morgan and Frank Worthington were in the Wanderers side. We won 2-1 in the first leg and 4-2 in the second. We went on to win the competition."

One of Frank's major honours came in 1985. "I won the European Golden Boot Award for being top goalscorer in Scotland with 35 goals" he reflected.

Combining with the likes of Willie Miller, Alec McCleish and Jim Leighton came the highlight of his career in helping Aberdeen win the Scottish Cup beating Hearts 3-0 in front of 90,000 at a packed Hampden Park. Jubilation soon turned to devastation because that Cup Winners medal always reminds Frank of his last professional game due to that back injury.

"I got nothing" he said. "But I'm quite happy what I'm doing now". He lives with his mother and family within view of Bury's Gigg Lane floodlights and works for Supreme Windows, a double glazing company in the town.

Supreme's supreme is Vinny Holden who has strong connections with Manchester Amateur League side Tettington United. 'Totty' are ambitious and that may be why Frank has taken up coaching duties twice weekly. "Everything is going to plan" he said, "we're top of the league, still in the cup and they are a good bunch of lads. There were 31 at training the other night."

Tottington surroundings may seem light years away from the times Frank McDougall played against Flamingo in front of 174,000 spectators in America, brushing shoulders with Brazilian Zeco, or playing in World Cup qualifiers for Scotland against Australia and Mexico. "Then there's the numerous European games" he added, "but I am happy to put something back into the game."

Frank has a fair background on Bury having clicked through the Gigg Lane turnstiles occasionally this term. "They are hot and cold" he said, "play well against the likes of Notts County then fail at Chorley."

He still has strong Scottish connections. "Gordon Strachan is a good pal" he revealed, "Frank McAvennie is my best mate and I keep in touch with them all."

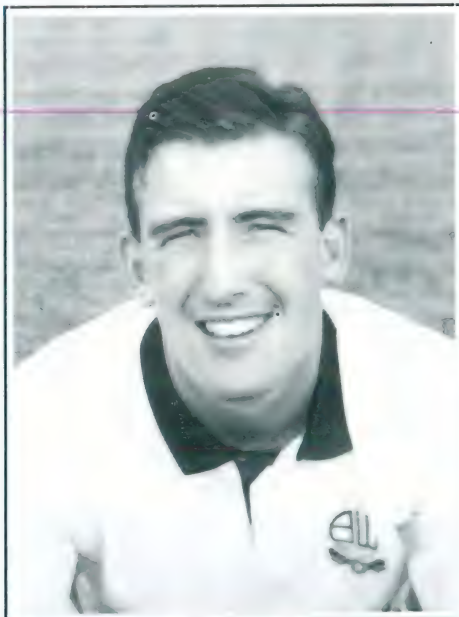

There's just one other achievement Frank McDougall can boast. "I'm the only player ever to score four goals against Glasgow Celtic. We won 4-1 and Celtic scored first," he concluded. Maybe Frank's next achievement will be guiding Tottington United to some silverware, and that would be appreciated as much as anything.

This afternoon we feature Wanderers midfielder ace Steve Thompson who is currently the longest serving player at the club with over 350 games to his credit.

Twenty seven year old Steve followed his father Jim into professional football, who had played over 400 league games as a wing-half with Oldham, Exeter, Rochdale and Bradford. Steve joined the club in our First Division days and signed professional forms in November 1982, making his debut for the Whites just a few days after his eighteenth birthday in a Second Division encounter against Derby County which finished goalless at the Baseball Ground.

His home debut for the club didn't arrive until the following season when he played in the 8-1 mauling of Walsall in September 1983 and he went on to play in 45 games that particular season, our first back in the Third Division since 1973.

Steve had come through the ranks here at Burnden Park with the likes of Simon Farnworth and Warren Joyce—now both at Preston, Jimmy Phillips—now with Middlesbrough, and Wayne Foster—Hearts, youngsters who had developed together through the youth and reserve teams and made it to the first team. It took a while before Steve finally won over the Wanderers faithful with his fine midfield play but one thing that was not in doubt was his ability with a ball and certainly there is not a better craftsman than Steve in the Third or Fourth Divisions. Wanderers' current exciting run has taken us to second in the table with Steve putting down the main ingredients as 'confidence and a great team spirit' which hopefully will take us through to the Second Division at the end of the season and fulfil one of Steve's ambitions, to return and play at a higher level.

In his spare time he works in the family business of supplying materials to hotels in and around Blackpool, whilst at least twice a week he gets involved with coaching Blackpool Rangers under-15 side who play on Sundays. Steve will soon be involved in parenthood with his wife Vivien—due to have the baby at the beginning of June. "Really looking forward to the baby. Hopefully it will be double celebration time if we can maintain our progress in the League" said an excited Steve.

We asked Steve about his highlights with the Wanderers. "Getting promotion back to the Third Division stands out as well as playing at Wembley twice in '86 and '89 with the Torquay victory making up for going down against Bristol City" added Steve. Reaching Wembley in 1989 came down to Steve having to convert a late penalty in extra time against his home town team Blackpool. "That was pretty crucial, but after the win I couldn't go out in Blackpool for about four weeks" he added with a rueful smile.

With well over fifty goals for the club we asked him for his particular favourite. "Against Fulham in season 1986-87" said Steve, although we can all vouch for one or two specials that he has scored during the last few seasons for Bolton.

We then asked Steve about our recent FA Cup tie against Manchester United and did he find it hard to adjust to playing against a top First Division outfit. "Not at all, I think it was a great team performance and from a personal view I really enjoyed it with the lads certainly deserving a draw on the day" said Steve.

With the crucial run-in to the end of the season now upon us we asked him who he thought would be the danger teams. "Cambridge for one, because of their awkward style. They have had a fine run recently which breeds confidence so I think they will certainly be there or thereabouts while Southend and Grimsby have managed to get some breathing space at the top of the Division. But really at the end of the day we just have to concentrate on our own performances" stated the likeable midfielder.

When you think that Steve Thompson is nearly eligible for a testimonial after his nine years playing for the Wanderers and he is only just reaching his peak playing-wise at twenty-seven, it just goes to show what an asset Steve has been in the past and more importantly in the future as Bolton Wanderers look to return to the Second Division. There is certainly no doubting that Steve's midfield play making has been a major factor in Bolton's attractive style of football that has won them matches as well as admirers.

The Wanderers tasted defeat away from home for the first time since last March when fellow promotion rivals Hull ran out, 3-0 winners at Boothferry Park.

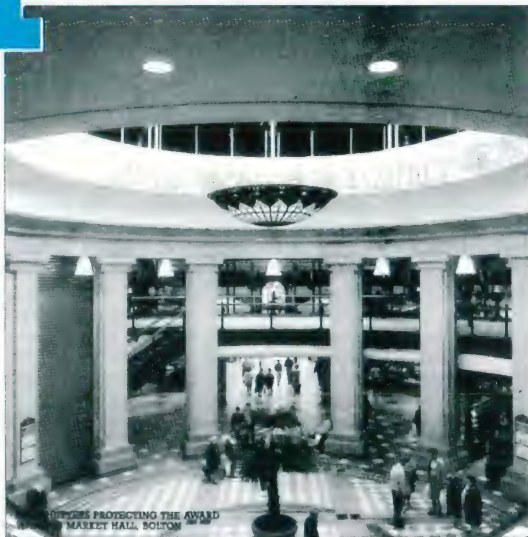

The home side took the lead in the 24th minute when Paul Hunter headed in from close range at the second attempt after the Wanderers had failed to clear a right wing corner.

Seconds before half time Ian McParland shot Hull's second goal of the evening but Bolton started the second half brightly.

Despite having the better of the possession during this spell Iain Hesford in the Hull goal was rarely troubled with Bolton creating only one clear cut chance.

Hull virtually assured themselves of the points in the 67th minute when Russ Wilcox headed home their third goal.

In the latter stages Lee Warren struck a post for Hull but Chris Clarke, making his debut in the Bolton goal, produced the save of the match when he turned a goalbound header from Wilcox over the bar.

Fulham 0 — 2 Bolton Wand.
(Hulme, Hill)

This programme really was a case of don't be fooled by first expressions. Priced at £1 and consisting of 36 pages of an A5 format the front cover was rather bland and lacking in colour, but inside the programme was a number of interesting and varied articles.

'Elm Park Round-Up' was very informative while 'Spotlight on Reserve's and Youth was good. The coverage of the Wanderers was one of the best read on our travels this season and the excellent 'Division 3 Newsdesk' was also an interesting read.

Overall view of the programme—an improvement from last season's issue with plenty more inside article-wise but still not convinced its worth the £1 price tag.

SAFE HANS

A lighthearted look at football

Welcome back this afternoon to Burnden Park after our away excursions to Reading and Tranmere. It really does seem such a long time since our last home fixture against Grimsby, or was it because we had those four games on home soil in just eleven days. The serious dose of writer's scamp is only just clearing up!

Much has happened since our goalless encounter with the Mariners. Barry Cowdrill scored what must be a contender for 'Goal of the Season' at Reading, a rare victory for the Wanderers at Elm Park as well of course as securing the double over the 'Royals'. Tranmere resulted in another exciting encounter in which their goalkeeper Eric Nixon produced three or four world class saves, it was good to see Mark Paterson score his first goal for the club and our away following of over 3,000 was brilliant.

MARCHING ON

This afternoon we entertain our friends from Fulham and in particular Martin Pike who of course had a spell on loan here last season and Bolton-born Phil Stant who has recently joined the London club after a unhappy stay at Notts County. After our victory down at Craven Cottage in December we are looking to record our third double of the season after Shrewsbury and Reading, with Fulham not exactly the best of travellers, still waiting for their first away victory of the season. It would seem odds on for a Wanderers win but with every game now gaining in importance nothing can be taken for granted and we all know that nothing will be achieved without a lot more hard work between now and the end of the season.

Next Tuesday

night we travel over to Mansfield Town in what for both teams is a crucial game with the Stags currently fighting to escape from the relegation zone. They have the worst home record in the Third Division but in saying that we know it won't be easy, a repeat of our victory there from last season would be most welcome. Then the big one on Saturday—'The Pie Eaters' return full of confidence after stuffing Stoke and sharing the spoils with the Shakers. We really do owe Wigan one after that awful Friday night back in September when they beat us. It will be interesting to see what sort of away support they bring with them because they are still in with a chance of making the play-offs, but with gates of only just over the two thousand mark can we expect too many? We have in fact informed the caterers just in case, to treble the usual pie orders and we have also made available to be sold on the day the 'Wigan Kebab', which incorporates a meat and potato pie, meat pie, steak and kidney pie, and chicken and mushroom pie—all on one stick.

On closing today I would just like to say a few words about the lads in the Gulf who have done us all proud with the job they have done over there. It can't have been easy working in conditions which were alien to them but they have come through with flying colours and let's hope it's not too long before they can return and catch a football match or two. We certainly know from the amount of letters we have received down here at Burnden that football has helped at times to take away at least for a few minutes each week when the war was in progress, the situation they were in.

A look back at the recent past

BY

SIMON MARLAND

Bolton will today be looking to record the first 'double' over Fulham since season 1976/77 having won 1-0 at Craven Cottage just before Christmas thanks to a Tony Philiskirk goal.

In October 1976 a crowd of 24,228 saw the Wanderers win 2-1 at Burnden thanks to goals from Neil Whatmore and Sam Allardyce. This was the fourth time that the clubs had faced each other in as many weeks as a third round league cup tie went to a second replay with the Wanderers winning 2-1 at St. Andrews.

Goals from Neil Whatmore and Steve Taylor completed the double at Craven Cottage in January 1977.

Fulham's first visit to Burnden was in October 1908 when a Second Division clash ended goalless. The Wanderers first visit to Fulham came in the following February when goals from Billy Hughes and Jimmy Hogan earned a 2-1 win and commenced a run of seven consecutive wins that culminated in the Second Division championship coming to Burnden.

More recently Fulham's visits to Burnden have produced both barren and entertaining games in terms of goals.

In their nine League visits since April 1974, four have ended goalless, including last season's encounter and the final game of the 1977/78 season which saw the Wanderers win the point needed to secure the Second Division championship.

In February 1983 a Sean O'Driscoll goal gave the Londoners their last victory at Burnden and their first since September 1961. At the end of the 1982/83 season Bolton were relegated whilst Fulham narrowly missed out on promotion to Division One.

Our paths didn't cross again until 1986/87 when the Wanderers went down 4-2 at Craven Cottage but won 3-2 at Burnden to end a run of almost two months without a league win. Warren Joyce, Steve Thompson and Tony Caldwell hit the Bolton goals whilst Kevin Hoddy and Kenny Achampong scored for Fulham.

Fulham's next visit to Burnden was in September 1988 and once again the Wanderers ran out 3-2 winners but in more nail biting circumstances. Robbie Savage and Steve Thompson were on the mark for the Wanderers whilst Andy Sayer and Gary Peters had scored for Fulham. In the 5th minute of injury time Trevor Morgan struck the winner to keep Bolton up with the early pacesetters in the Third Division.

Our overall League record against Fulham is as follows:

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

Walter White joined Bolton from Hurlford Thistle in May 1902 having previously been with Portland thistle and Kil-marnock.

He came into the team at 20 years old as an inside forward, making his debut in a 1-0 home defeat at the hands of Notts County in September 1902.

White couldn't help prevent Bolton being relegated at the end of his first season but 12 months later helped the club reach the FA Cup final.

He came to prominence as a goalscorer during 1904/05 hitting 24 goals as the Wanderers won promotion and formed a lethal partnership with Albert Shepherd and Sam Marsh.

In 1905/06 he continued to find the net regularly. His 25 goals came in 38 League games and he began to catch the eye of the Scottish selectors.

He won the first of his two Scottish caps in April 1907 against England at Newcastle, his second coming a year later in the same fixture in Glasgow.

In November 1908 he moved to Everton, scoring 10 goals in 43 League appearances and helping them to the First Division runners up spot in 1909.

He moved to Fulham in October 1910 and remained at Craven Cottage until his retirement in 1923 having played 193 Second Division games for the Londoners. He died in July 1950 aged 68.

His Bolton record is as follows:

1940/41 SEASON

Despite the closure of the club the players nor the ground stood idle. Many of the players guested for other clubs whilst the playing area of Burnden Park was used by the Education Authority and the stands used by the Ministry of Supply to store food.

The Wanderers resumed on Christmas Day 1940 with a friendly at Blackpool who were also resuming after closure. League football returned to Bolton in the form of the Football League North's second competition of the season with a visit from Oldham. A crowd of 2083 saw the Wanderers win 2-1 in what was also the 1st leg of the 1st round of the Lancashire cup. Guest players for Bolton included Butler of West Brom, Cunliffe of Everton, Eastwood of Manchester City, Martindale of Burnley and former Wanderer Eastham now with Blackpool. Indeed the club were uncertain of the line up almost until kick off.

On January 25th the Wanderers had to take to the field with only ten men against Manchester United. Ron Bolton a 19 years old keeper from Rotherham had got lost on his way to the ground. Harry Goslin went into goal and United went one up inside a minute. Bolton eventually appeared after 12 minutes going on to become man of the match with a magnificent exhibition.

A good start was made in the Football League war cup.

Bradford City were beaten 9-1 in the preliminary round both games taking place at Burnden at City's request. Burnley were accounted for in the first round but Preston proved too strong for the Wanderers at the next hurdle, although the best gate since the start of the War 7838, saw the first leg at Burnden.

During February after 21 years in the club's service, senior trainer Bob Young severed his connections with the Wanderers to become the licensee of the Shakespeare Hotel in Farnworth. His duties were taken over by George Eccles.

On March 22nd a surprise change was made in the Wanderers attack for the visit of Bury. Nathaniel Lofthouse a former Folds Road and Bolton Town team centre forward appeared for the first time aged 15 years 207 days. Bolton won 5-1 with Lofthouse grabbing his sides fourth and fifth goals. Other amateurs were included in the side, Walter Grimsditch of Farnworth St. Thomas's and Harry Cload of Halliwell were two, many of whom in normal circumstances would have been lucky to get a game in the A team.

Whilst new blood was being introduced at Burnden the established stars were making a name for themselves elsewhere. Norwich City defeated a Dutch Army XI by 7-0, six of the goals coming from Wanderers in Don Howe, Tom Sinclair and Jack Roberts who hit a brace a piece.

Although only 10 games were won out of a total of 27 (including friendlies) played, since re-opening, the Wanderers could regard the return to football as amply justified. Junior talent was being explored pretty thoroughly at the loss of success on the field but many new professionals could be signed when normalities returned.

UPDATE

TODAY'S REFEREE

P. W. VANES
(Warley)

Mr. Vanes commenced refereeing in 1972 progressing via local league and West Midlands onto Football League Referees List in 1984/85 season. Important matches officiated in include Linesman at 1984 European Cup/Dynamo Dresden v Metz. He is married with two children and employed as a manager of a electrical drawing office. His interest and hobbies include road running (best time in marathon of 2hrs 50 mins — watch out Seb Coe) and gardening.

HELPING THE GAME

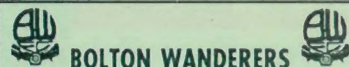

A fine new stand — one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
